

Solihull NWR Programme - Spring 2024

There are some split meetings in this programme and whole group ones. Please notify the host of the split meeting in advance, if you would like to attend. Please double check the start time for meetings.

| Date | Host | Meeting Topic |
|---|---------------------|---|
| Split Meeting Tuesday 9th Jan 2.30pm Thursday 11th Jan 10.30 am | Dianne Hilda | The Letter "J" J is for January. What significant J's do you have in your life? Come along and share a couple of them with the rest of the group. Meeting hosts to lead. |
| Full group Friday 26th Jan 10.30 am | Elaine | Ancient Tomes To mark the 500th anniversary of the founding of the Longman Press publishing house, bring along the oldest book on your bookshelf and tell us why you have it in your collection. We will also be holding a book swap if you have a book you think others will enjoy. Chris to lead. |
| Full group Thursday 8th Feb 10.30 am | Kitty | "What 3 Clues" Bring along 3 clues to a town/city in the UK - a difficult, medium & easy one. We will use these in a guessing game, with a prize for the winner. |
| Full Group Monday 19th Feb at 7.30 pm | Lynn | Smell - "pew what a pong" Bring along a sample(if possible) of a smell which evokes a memory for you. We will also be testing your ability to identify some mystery aromas. Lynn to lead. |
| Split Meeting Tues 5th March 7.30 pm Thursday 7th March 10.30 am | Lynda Kitty | Women of Courage In keeping with this year's NWR theme of "Courage, dear heart" the planning set will share the stories of the lives of some courageous women through history, from around the world. Please feel free to bring along a contribution if there is a woman of courage you particularly admire. Hostess to lead |
| Whole Group Thursday 21st March 2.30 pm | Dianne | Time for Tea Our end of term social, with an emphasis on our favourite cuppa. The history, tastings and accompanying refreshments. |
