

NWR PROGRAMME AUTUMN 2023

Aug 30th Weds	7.30pm	Woke, what does it mean? How do we respond, bring some examples. Eilis and Kath will guide us through the maze but they will need our help.	AC
Tues Sept 12th	2.30pm	The Big Read. Come and join us to discuss 4 books relating to this year's themes of Drugs, Herbs, Medicine and Benelux, (see list below). Nearer the time we shall ask for volunteers to lead the discussion of each title.	JP
Weds Sept 27th	7.30pm	It's time to look ahead to the next 6 months and plan our programme of meetings, visits. After all the brainwork we can enjoy some cheese and wine.	AC
Thursday Oct 12th	2.30pm	Following an exhibition of Cezanne's works at the Tate Modern we shall have an illustrated talk by our friend and local art historian, Lavinia Jones. She will help us to explore the question, "Why is Cezanne considered the father of modern art?"	AC
Mon Oct 23 rd	7.30pm	The first woman to ??? Before the meeting we shall circulate a list of significant achievements by lesser known women. Choose one and research something about her to share with everyone.	AC
Tues Nov 7 th	7.45pm	"And then there were none" by Agatha Christie	AC
Weds Nov 15th	7.30 for 8.00pm start	Telephone Treasure Trail – Join us for the annual NWR quiz and crack the 20 clues in 2 hours	KW
Monday Dec 4 th	7.30pm	The first Poet Laureate was John Dryden 1631, since then we have had over 50. Choose one and find a poem you like to bring and share with us.	KW
Thurs Dec 14th	7.30pm	Christmas Social. An opportunity to relax, chat and enjoy seasonal refreshments	AC